The Ghost of the Sex-Crazed Cat, The Urinating Goblin, and Ravished by a Glass Tube in the Tower of London are just a few of the amazing tales in this titillating look at sexy ghosts. Strange, spooky, and hilarious, these stories all concern ghosts who are either sexual in nature or have manifested due to sexual feelings, and they are based on more than 40 real cases gathered from around the world. Ghostly figures of hooded monks, head bodies, and strange goblin-like figures compete in their bid to spread terror and unease. Dark and dank rectories, modern airports, ordinary private houses, and pleasant country houses all have their stories to tell. Skeptics are invited to read such stories as The Voyeuristic Wizard, Archibald's Orgy in Hell, The Groaning Bubbles, and The Naked Five Who Refused to Die and make up their own minds as to the explanation behind them.
