When Kitty Swift and her psychic service dog, Chica, lead a deaf tour group on a luxury cruise to Spain, they have a blast exploring the cozy fishing villages along the Mediterranean coast. The food is divine, the ocean is crystal clear, and the locals are delightful. More than that, Kitty finally gets to meet Leander's Spanish relatives. She's sure that they've finally ended their bad luck and it will be a peaceful week eating paella, playing in the sand, and sailing her own little boat on the turquoise waters. But little does she know, Death is on the prowl. When Leander's uncle is accused of a shocking murder, the crime fighting trio must hunt down the killer before he strikes again. Even the most beautiful places can harbor the darkest evil. It's up to Starling and Swift to solve the crime! A cozy mystery of about 140 pages with recipes!
