A Day in the Life of Ancient Rome sets out to answer some of the questions often posed by students, the general public, and even by teachers, about what it was actually like to live in Ancient Rome. Taking the framework of a typical day in the life of the city and its people, the book is divided into Morning, Afternoon and Evening, guiding the reader through the daily experiences of the people in ancient Rome. This book is ideal for teachers and school pupils of Classical Civilisation and provides a foundation for those looking at the culture of the ancient Romans.
