A moving tale of thwarted love between Lauren (an American) and Seth (her British second cousin), spanning a period of ten years. Fresh out of college, Lauren accompanies her grandmother on a trip to Lichfield, England in 1979, and struggles to resist her growing passion for the elusive, rebellious young Seth. If Lauren instinctively knows Seth loves her, then why does it all go wrong? No answers, only silence and despair... Their paths seem destined not to cross again. "Hunger Hill" is deliciously sharp and sensual: an absorbing tale guaranteed to satisfy even the most cynical appetite. A gripping feat of transatlantic passion and adventure.
