There is an irony in this play, in the good word wonderful sense of humour and defending all the true values which are essential in our lives, such as PURITY in our souls. The true values which make our lives worth living!" - Graca Outeiro The book is a mystery play in three acts. The central theme is the conflict between good and evil. 21st century, the civilization is getting more complicated to tolerate the future. People who were born perfect but they are not satisfied about their birth. Most of them are walking through a blind double fold the path of darkness. Ignorance is the darkest corner of heart; once people overcome ignorance he/she will be invincible (The Alchemist).
