 VOTED: 50 MOST ANTICIPATED BOOKS OF 2018 by Alice Lot I remember walking down the hallway to enter my mother's bedroom. I could see what was happening before I entered. I knew that because I didn't know my real father and he would be gone, she (my mother) would be sleeping with another Man, and there would be no shame. What would happen after this was extraordinary. I knew I had the "gift" at age 3. My brain is not normal. I have a 185 IQ. I was offered full ride scholarships to every major University in the world at the age of 10. I accepted one and attend it now at 14. What you're about to read is a true story. My story. I'm not American, but a German with abilities far beyond the norm. I hardly ever lose. But when I do, I know it was to learn a lesson. You're about to learn one now...  "It has come to my attention that a video up-loader gave me credit in a recent video.
