"I can make new memories for you." When Greg Stone suddenly appeared in her quiet life, Eloise Dalton did her best to resist the flaming attraction between them. She couldn't risk her heart again. The hurt from the past had been too devastating. But, Greg, a successful director who'd just returned to New Zealand from California, was persistent. He offered to make Eloise's first novel into a film. How could she refuse? Working with Greg stirred such painful memories. Eloise had to decide how much of the past she could let go for the sake of a future with Greg.
