FREE ON KINDLE UNLIMITED Lady Lucy Collington has given all four of her daughters an ultimatum: They are to marry men of high stature immediately, or else the family will come to ruin. Emmeline's older sisters, Lady Caroline and Lady Dorothea, are now well-married to titled men, so it is up to Emmeline to choose her husband. And with her father home at last, and two very eligible men courting her, it seems Emmeline's life is taking a fortuitous turn. But while the Duke of Windmere has made his intentions for her known, her heart has been taken by the dashing Lord Arthur Hamilton. And though he has no title of his own, Emmeline has a plan for him to receive one. But Emmeline is not the only one with a plan, and it seems the duke will not be dissuaded so easily. Can Emmeline find happiness with the man she loves, or does fate have its own plans for her, as well?
