A feisty widow; a dashing outlaw—something's definitely afoot. The Widow Beautiful Maggie Turner was the soul of respectability, determined to earn an honest living for herself and her town children in rough and tumble nineteenth century California. The Outlaw Dominick Sanders was shrouded in mystery, known to Maggie as the notorious Kissing Bandit—a man who kissed the women in the stages he robbed! It was enough to make Maggie's blood boil—and heart pound faster. The Marriage. But now these two are thrown together in a mock marriage designed to deceive the world. Maggie has no choice but to play along—or else risk losing everything she's ever worked for, including the man she has no business loving.
